- 4:04:02 The teams when registered will be registered by the proper grouping determined by the birth date of the oldest player on the team. Teams will enter competition outside of their league, playing in their proper age group as registered or higher. A team may play in any age group higher than the one of registration. A team may NOT play in an age group lower than the one of registration.
- 4:04:03 Admissible Ages: Teams may be admitted into the Club at any age year.
- 4:04:04 Small-Sided Teams: MVLA Teams who shall play with fewer than FIFA-specified 11 players per side in their regular in-house or travel- based playing venues.

- 4:04:06 The MVLA Board may decide at its discretion, and with accompanying documentation of policy and procedure, to distinguish between Teams that play in Competitive playing leagues and those that play in Recreational playing leagues. The definitions of terms “Competitive” and “Recreational” are guided by the statements below and may be documented more fully in associated policy and procedure.
- a) A Competitive Team is one created through a process of detailed tryouts with specific selection criteria applied to the selection process. This is generally expected to be a travel team that trains regularly and aspires to compete at the highest levels possible within its capability. A Competitive Team will play in one or more authorized competitive playing leagues or venues.
 - b) A Recreational Team is one created through a process of placement, rather than tryouts selection. Placement criteria, which shall be documented, may relate to various reasonable factors, but the intent and purpose of such a team is to allow more egalitarian development of players who are more suited to a less competitive venue. Recreational Teams in general do not travel but instead play in-house leagues and venues.

Specific Rules

- 4:04:07 The MVLA Board may decide at its discretion, and with accompanying documentation of policy and procedure, to admit individual members or groups of members into the Club who are not attached to a Team. The intent and purpose of such an action would be to stage players in training for the purpose of effectively preparing them for selection or placement onto a Team at some future date. The definitions of the terms “Academy” and “In-House” Program are guided by the statements below and may be documented more fully in associated policy and procedure.
- a) An Academy is a group of players registered for the purpose of receiving education and training in one or more functional areas. Such groups may be chartered by age, skill level, skill type, position type, etc. There is an expectation of teaching excellence and development of core competencies for any Academy. Membership in an Academy does not preclude the member from being a Member of an MVLA Team.
 - b) An In-House Program is a group of players registered with the intent of receiving training or opportunity to play for any purpose approved by the MVLA Board. Such In-House Programs shall conduct their activities inside the Club amongst registered members. Involvement in any activity occurring outside the Club or against other clubs must be approved by the MVLA Board and is generally discouraged. Approved activities may include, but are not limited to, recreational pick-up groups, pre-training for groups of players intending to petition for admission into the Club as an 11v11 Team at a future date, indoor leagues or conditioning programs, in-house recreational play venues including play-dates, jamborees, or leagues, etc.
